

I Am ANDREW

Introduce a friend to Jesus Christ.

Who is Andrew?

Andrew was one of the first disciples Jesus called during His earthly ministry. The first chapter of John's gospel recounts how Andrew learned who Jesus was—and then immediately found his brother Simon Peter and brought him to meet the Son of God. Today, you—and your church members—can do the same by praying for family members, friends, neighbours, and co-workers who don't know Jesus and then bringing them to hear the Gospel during the God Loves You Tour.

The history of I Am Andrew

The idea for I Am Andrew began in England. During preparations for Billy Graham's historic Crusade in London in 1954, the team heard about a local church that was consistently reaching people with the Gospel. When Billy Graham and the Crusade staff investigated, they discovered that the congregation was holding monthly events during which members brought friends who didn't know the Lord.

The team adopted this idea for Crusades and encouraged Christians to pray for and bring loved ones who are far from God to the evangelistic events. This also helped ensure that new believers would be discipled in a local church. Today, BGEA still uses I Am Andrew, with the goal of creating opportunities for personal evangelism on a citywide scale.

I Am ANDREW SUNDAY

In preparation for the God Loves You Tour, churches like yours in Belfast and Dublin will join together on special Sundays—dates will be announced later—for I Am Andrew Sundays. Will you and your congregation take the I Am Andrew pledge?

PRAY

Write down the name of at least one person you know who needs

Jesus and then pray each day for him or her. Ask God to open their heart and give you opportunities to share His love with them.

BRING

Bring your friend to the event. If he or she responds to Christ or shows an interest in the Gospel, they will need your ongoing encouragement.

SHARE

Spend time with your friend. It can deepen your friendship and create a chance to discuss Christ. Begin to talk to your friend about attending the event with you.

FOLLOW UP

Invite them to church with you. God can use you and your church to bring them into a deepening relationship with Jesus.

“Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you.” —1 Peter 3:15, NKJV
