HOW DO I GET TO CO-OP LIVE?

Co-op Live is located on the Etihad Campus, a short distance from the centre of Manchester. Plan your journey using the enhanced journey planner at <https://travel.yousmartthing.com/coop-live>.

For more information, visit the Transport for Greater Manchester website: <https://tfgm.com/getting-to-co-op-live-arena>.

FREE TICKET COLLECTION: Co-op Live requires every attendee to have a ticket to gain entry. The good news is that all tickets are completely free. Our team will give you a free ticket when you arrive. As you make your way to the entrances, you'll see several Ticket Collection Points clearly marked with large Free Ticket flags. Please pick up a ticket before heading to security at the entrances.

GETTING HERE BY FOOT: Co-op Live is a 25-minute walk from the heart of Manchester. From Piccadilly Station, take the "CityLink Presented by The Climate Pledge" walking route from Manchester's Ancoats, New Islington, and Holt Town areas, following blue lampposts.

GETTING HERE BY TRAM: Frequent trams run on the Ashton-Piccadilly line to the Etihad Campus, located directly next to the venue. Trams run from the city centre every 7.5 minutes until 1 a.m. on Fridays and Saturdays.

PARK AND RIDE: There are 24 park and ride sites in Greater Manchester: <https://tfgm.com/ways-to-travel/park-and-ride>. You can park your car for free and hop on the tram to your destination. The nearest park and ride sites to the Co-op Live Arena are:

- Ashton Moss (Ashton line) - 183 spaces and 12 disabled spaces
- Ashton West (Ashton line) - 184 spaces and 11 disabled spaces
- Ladywell (Ashton-Eccles line) - 332 spaces and 22 disabled spaces

GETTING HERE BY BUS: On site coach parking is available for free in the official Blue Parking area directly opposite the Co-op Live. Please note that coach parking is available for only preregistered groups travelling by coach. On the day of the tour, please pay close attention to the traffic marshalls on duty.

GETTING HERE BY CAR: Limited Official Vertu Parking is available at Co-op Live and must be prebooked ahead of the event online: https://customer-parking-services.tracsis.com/?access_token=coop. Official Vertu Parking may be released up to four weeks before the event.

Standard Parking will be charged at £25 per vehicle per event, and Express Parking will be charged at £35 per vehicle per event. Refer to the map to see the Official Orange Parking or the Official Blue Parking. Parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Please use the post code M11 3DU and follow the signs to Etihad Campus as you get closer.

You can also park in the city centre at one of the city centre car parks and ride the tram to Etihad Campus, or use one of the many park and ride locations in Greater Manchester.

GETTING HERE BY TRAIN: There are a number of train companies in the UK that operate trains to Manchester, including Avanti West Coast, Northern, TransPennine Express, CrossCountry, and Transport for Wales. Travellers can get to Manchester via the four main train stations:

- Manchester Piccadilly: 25-minute walk or 10-minute tram direct to the Etihad Campus.
- Manchester Victoria: 45-minute walk or 30-minute tram to the Etihad Campus, changing at Piccadilly Station.

- Manchester Oxford Road: 45-minute walk or 12-minute tram from nearby St Peter's Square to the Etihad Campus.
- Manchester Deansgate: 60-minute walk or 15-minute tram direct to the Etihad Campus.

WHERE IS PICKUP/DROP-OFF? There are designated locations to be dropped off and picked up on Edwin Road, highlighted in red on the map; please ensure you use these and share these locations with those in your group. You can use the postcode M11 3ER.

HOW DO I GET TO THE VENUE IF I HAVE ACCESS REQUIREMENTS?

Entrance B is a dedicated accessible entrance directly onto the event floor. Although, all entrances into the venue are step-free, except Entrance C. Accessible ticket holders can use the closest entrance to their point of arrival.

Please speak to a member of the team outside the venue when you arrive should you need any assistance.

ACCESSIBLE PARKING: Blue badge parking is available for Co-op Live shows for those who require accessible parking. Accessible parking is available at Co-op Live for £25 and must be reserved in advance. Official Vertu Parking may be released up to four weeks before the event.

You can book parking online: https://customer-parking-services.tracsis.com/book-parking-events/?access_token=coop. Accessible parking will be located as close to Co-op Live as we can accommodate. Please follow the signs upon arrival. All blue badge accessible parking spaces are standard size.

WHAT IS THE BAG POLICY? Co-op Live does not allow large bags into the venue for security reasons. You will be allowed to take small handbags in with you, as long as they are no larger than A4 in size. The Co-op Live has a one bag per person policy. Backpacks, travel cases, laptop bags, large umbrellas, professional cameras, and large tote bags are not permitted inside the venue but can be stored in the bag drop.

There will be limited bag storage on site, priced for £5 for small items like coats, large umbrellas, and professional cameras; £10 for small bags up to the size of a rucksack; £15 for large bags bigger than the size of a rucksack. This facility will be located in a portacabin in Official Blue Car Park on the Etihad Campus.

Important for passengers travelling by coach: Please be advised that any bags or personal belongings left on the coach are left entirely at the owner's risk. It's recommended that passengers always keep precious items on their person. For example: iPhones, iPads, laptops, or wallets.

CAN I BRING MY OWN FOOD AND DRINK? Passengers travelling by coach can bring their own cold food and drink items to enjoy on the coach, however, these items will not be allowed into the venue. The Co-op Live has many restaurants and lounges catering to a wide variety of dietary preferences. All food and drink items will carry full ingredients lists and be clearly labelled with allergens to ensure those with food allergies can easily access the information they need.

There are 14 water stations around the arena providing free water to keep attendees healthy and hydrated. If you need to bring anything from outside because of special dietary or medical requirements, please contact the Co-op Live in advance of your visit and speak to staff at the door on arrival. The email address is access@cooplive.com.

DOES THE CO-OP LIVE ACCEPT CASH PAYMENTS? Co-op Live is a cashless venue. All payments must be made by contactless card. They also accept Apple and Google Pay.

MORE Q&A ONLINE: For more information, please visit the Co-op Live webpage at <https://www.cooplive.com> and navigate to Visitor Info.
