

ARE YOU PREPARED TO OFFER GOD'S HOPE TO YOUR HURTING NEIGHBORS?

You are invited to a FREE Charlotte training event.

"When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.'" —MATTHEW 9:36–38, ESV

DISCOVER HOW YOU CAN SHARE GOD'S HOPE WITH YOUR NEIGHBORS IN CHARLOTTE.

Join other Christians from across Charlotte and learn practical ways to minister in Jesus' Name to men and women facing stress, grief, tragedy, or crisis—and discover how to encourage fellow believers to do the same. The 2 ½-hour trainings will begin in January. Topics include:

- How to graciously engage in conversation, listen sincerely, and respond appropriately
- How to stay focused on God's hope and love
- The effects of trauma and grief
- What to say—and not say—to hurting people

"If we are going to touch the people of our communities, we too must know their sorrows, feel for them in their temptations, and stand with them in their heartbreaks. Jesus Christ entered into the arena of our troubles, and wept with them that wept and rejoiced with them that rejoiced."

—BILLY GRAHAM
