1. Top section: “Potential Idols”—Write two or three things that could become “idols” in your life if you’re not careful. This includes anything or anyone that detracts attention from God or takes priority over His purposes.

2. Middle section: “Relationships and Lifestyle”—Briefly describe a couple aspects of your life that may need to change in order for you to have the positive influence He intends for you to have on others. This could involve a relationship you need to change, get out of, or develop. It could also be an attitude, activity, or behavior that’s questionable or that you know is not right.

3. Bottom section: “Positive Peers”—List several Christian acquaintances along with any Christian peers with whom you could develop a friendship. These are people you can encourage and with whom you could partner to have more effective influence for Jesus.
