Billy and Ruth Graham’s home—Little Piney Cove—in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains near Asheville, North Carolina, provided a respite from their busy public lives. They found rest and rejuvenation on this secluded mountainside and wanted to create a retreat center that would be an extension of this haven—a place where hospitality could be an expression of God’s love. The Grahams shared their heart for the Training Center, that it would be a place where people could release the pressures and distractions of life and focus on God and His Word. Since the Billy Graham Training Center at The Cove’s founding in 1988, thousands of men and women have left behind the daily stress and distractions of their lives and found refreshment for their heart, soul, and mind. We hope that you, too, will find encouragement and rest in the truth of God’s Word and the peace of this place.

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.”

—ROMANS 12:2, NKJV

Jesus Christ said,
“If you continue in My word, then you are truly My disciples;
and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free”

(John 8:31-32, NASB). Today more than ever, Christians need to know the truth. False and harmful teaching has infiltrated our churches, schools, and homes—and only the power of His Word will allow us to take a stand for Biblical values in our lives and communities. I believe that if God’s people will dig deeper into Scripture and live boldly for His truth, the Lord will revive our churches, our communities, and our country. I hope you will join us here as we seek to live boldly for Jesus Christ and share His truth with others until the day of His glorious return.

“I have treasured Your word in my heart,
so that I may not sin against You.
... I will meditate on Your precepts and regard Your ways. I shall delight in Your statutes; I will not forget Your word.”

—PSALM 119:11, 15-16, NASB

Dear Friends,

“The word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart” (Hebrews 4:12, NKJV).

The Billy Graham Training Center at The Cove was developed as a place where people could get away from the stress and noise of life and focus solely on the Bible. The Holy Scriptures anchor us to eternity, holding us firm so we are not easily swayed by the winds of this world.

With beautiful surroundings, gourmet meals, cozy accommodations, and world-class Bible teachers, The Cove stands ready to welcome you. We pray that you'll be blessed and grow in the knowledge and understanding of God's Word during your visit.

Reflections

FROM OUR GUESTS

“I could feel the peace of God the moment we drove on the property. It overwhelmed me and flooded my heart with thankfulness. ... I came weary, tired, exhausted, both mentally and spiritually. I am leaving renewed with greater faith of how much God cares about [my life].

I am so grateful I had this time here.”

—SHELBY*

“I knew that I could find peace and rest [at The Cove]. That’s what we find here. Whether we come for the first time or the 29th time, God knows what we need, when we need it, and here at The Cove, He’s prepared this place, this time, for us.”

—CAROLYN*

“We come here hungry, but my time here is always refreshing. As leaders in the church, it seems like we spend our time preparing, and preparing, and preparing. To get away just to feast on what it is that God has to speak to our hearts is essential.”

—JONATHAN*

“From the time I got to the front gate all the way up to this moment right now, hospitality has been the theme of this experience. This place is a welcoming place ... [where Jesus] wants us to experience His love. I’m definitely going to be taking The Cove back with me. You know this is something I will never, ever forget.”

—STEPHEN*
